ACTIVITIES

Wearing his newly acquired "Good Guy Hat," Mr. Baietto prepares to present the Spirit Stick to the winning class.

"Wet" was the word for Homecoming 1969, but the rain failed to dampen the mood as the frenzied festivities began.

Shouting, laughter, and soaring spirit exploded at the Homecoming Pep Assembly. Staged by the cheerleaders, the rally was a roaring success.

Those who doubted the Knights' enthusiasm were surprised as the 25-car procession triumphed over the rain in the Homecoming Parade. Later, Richwoods brought a football foe to its knees in a victory over Bergan.

Saturday night, the Casino shimmered and sparkled for the Homecoming Dance. Miss Wendy Wiesler was crowned queen while the Inner Realm entertained, bringing the wonderful weekend to a close.

Cheerleader Linda Becker pours her magic ingredient over Doug Biederbeck to add to the Spirit Cake.

Junior spirit creates the Number One float!

In the throne room of the castle, a prospective bride, Princess No. 12, is tested by the Wizard.

Dauntless quizzes Winnifred in hopes of helping her pass a possible history examination.

Once upon

Lady Larken tells her lover, Sir Harry, that they will soon be parents—marriage or no marriage!

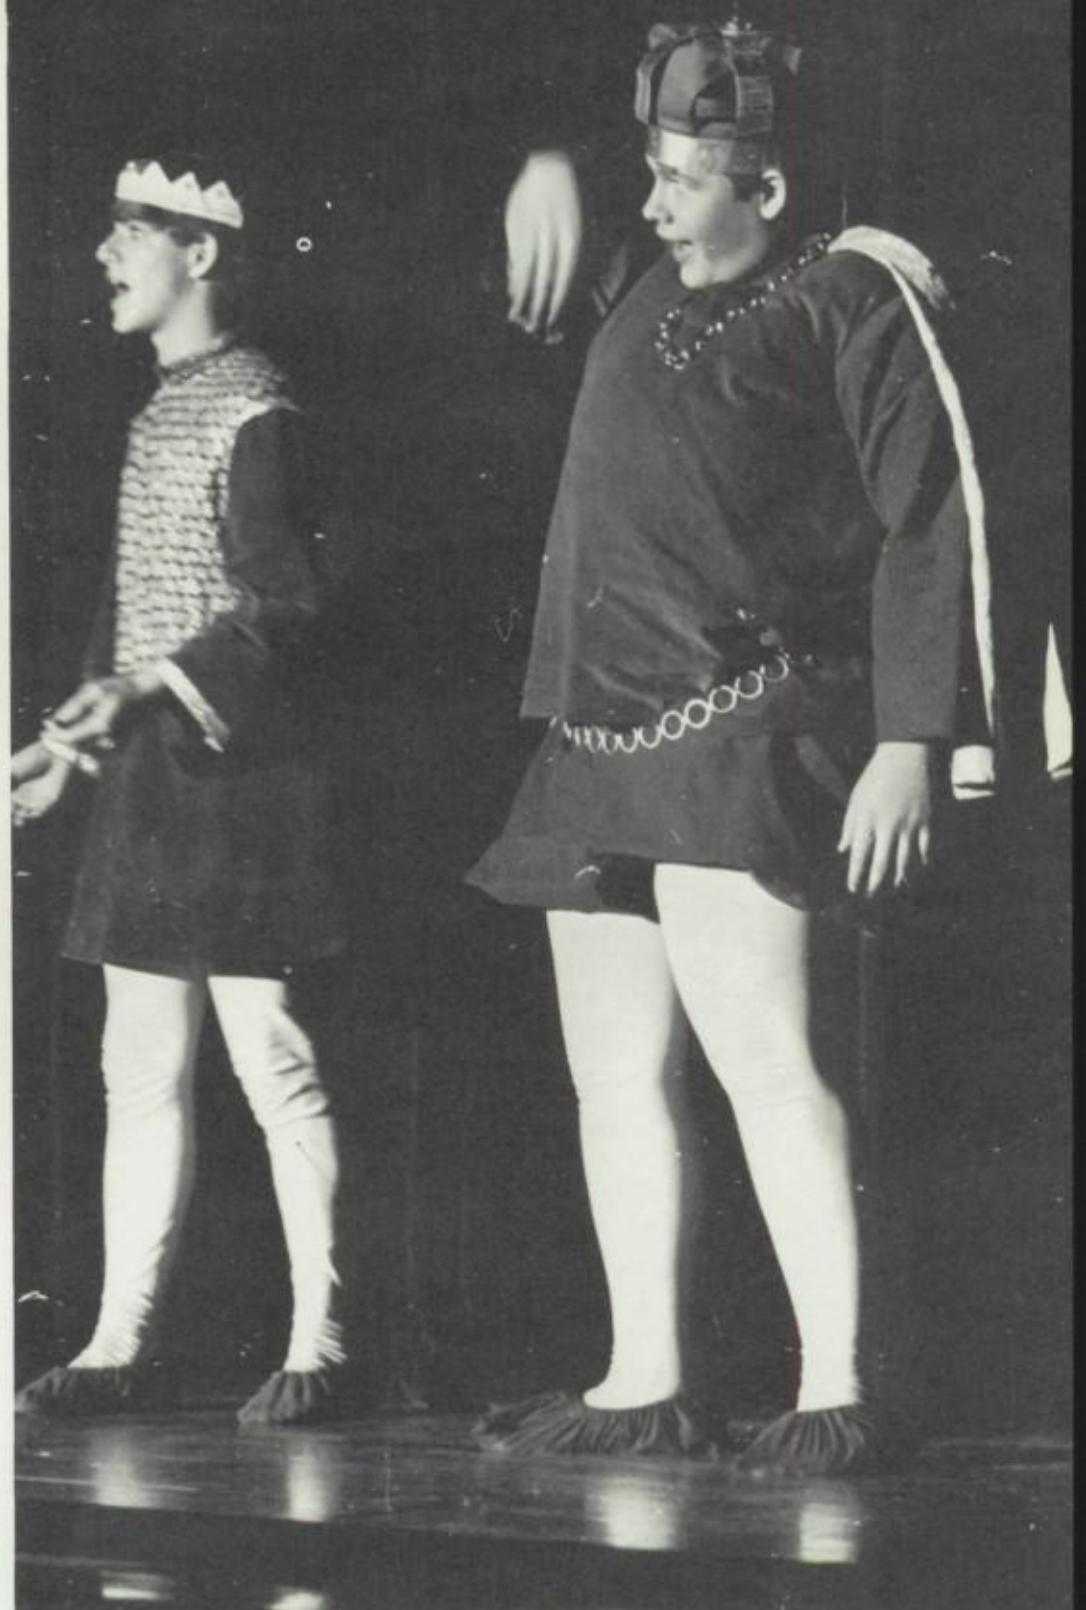

Queen Aggravain insists that Prince Dauntless listen to her while she explains how hard it is to be a member of royalty.

a Mattress

Continuing in the excellent tradition of musical comedies presented at RHS was this year's fall play, ONCE UPON A MATTRESS, directed by Mrs. Sara Drew.

Prince Dauntless the Drab (Rick Edwards) is the nucleus of the plot. He wants to get married, but his mother, Queen Aggravain (Dot O'Brien) is not in accord. Although a law in the kingdom does not permit any couple to get married before Dauntless, one couple of the court, Lady Larken (Nancy Nelson) and Sir Harry (Keith Nonnemacher) must soon be married!

Sir Harry sets out to find a bride for the Prince and returns with Winnifred the Woebegone (Bonnie Upchurch). She is subjected to a test of sensitivity dreamed up by the Queen and the Wizard (Doug Biederbeck). Because Winnifred passes the exam, she proves herself to be a real princess and the curse on the king is broken. The happy and relieved couples are now able to get married, while King Sextimus the Silent continues to rule the land with his fellow girl chasers and comrades, the Jester (Jon Noetzel) and the Minstrel (Cliff Garstang).

The mysteries of the birds and the bees are solved for Prince Dauntless by his father, the voiceless King Sextimus.

King Sextimus is aided by the Jester and the Minstrel in outlining their lives at court.

Floating Funnies Make Appearances

The young men of Dogpatch listen attentively while Pappy Yokum (Tom Oyan) explains Sadie Hawkins' Day.

Members of RHS Guard run from the girls wishing to make them their husbands in the Sadie Hawkins' Day Race.

Veronica (Mary Pula) greets Moose (Shannon Wood) and Madge (Lynn Lourie) in the Archie skit.

Dagwood floating in his tub atop the water of the RHS pool, Charlie Brown trying desperately to keep his team together by offering them uniforms, a water ballet by six of the girl Guards, a reunion of all the Archie gang years after they have gone their separate ways, a Sadie Hawkins' Day Race led by Pappy and Mammy Yokum, and the final spelling-out of "RHS #1." This was some of the action at the seventh annual Richwoods Guard Show.

The program's title this year was "Those Fantastic Floating Funnies," featuring skits taken from the comic strips with a few variations.

The RHS Guard worked hard to make the performance a good one. The show featured popular music in the skits, posters depicting the name of each skit and various colored lights shown upon the water. Mr. Clopper, swim coach, was also featured in the antics.

Laurie Stone and Todd Ellis take time for refreshments during the festive evening.

A "Snowball" Promised Christmas Bliss

Capturing the Christmas spirit, Bobbi Letz and Bob Harney enjoy the slow pace of this dance.

This year's winter dance, "A Snowball," launched the Richwoods students and faculty into the beginning of a long-awaited and well-deserved Christmas vacation. The Student Council sponsored this evening filled with fun, happiness, and holiday spirit.

The gym was artistically decorated with pine trees scattered along the sidelines, while in the center of the gym, a huge jolly snowman beamed at the dancing couples. Glittering snowflakes hung suspended from the ceiling, and confetti, strewn along the floor, gave the impression of newly-fallen snow. The "Ace of Spades" provided the music which consisted of many popular hits, accented with dances and wild gyrations done by the members of the group.

The "Ace of Spades" provided entertainment for those who attended "A Snowball."

Novel Turkey Trot Comes To RHS

Couples swirled and swayed until the cock crowed while attending the Richwoods High School Turkey Trot, the Thanksgiving vice-versa dance. The Turkey Trot, was held on November 26 in the RHS gymnasium. Those in attendance danced to the beat provided by the "Winter Harvest."

The week prior to the Turkey Trot, a spoof on Homecoming, was spent nominating candidates for the title. The nominees were to be escorted by girls from all four classes. During the intermission, Dave Layman, escorted by Beverly Dwyer, was crowned "Mr. Gobbler."

Another feature of the vice-versa was the Banana Eating Contest. Four members of the Mad Monkeys competed to devour the greatest number of bananas. Junior banana-eater Doug Rittler was named the "Mad Monkey" because he gobbled up the most bananas. He was awarded a giant "Chiquita" Banana. Adding to the turkey decor, the gym floor was covered with fluffy white turkey feathers.

Senior Mad Monkey, Eric Young, stuffs another banana into his mouth, only to lose the contest to junior Doug Rittler.

A slow dance changes the swinging tempo set by the "Winter Harvest."

"Mr. Gobbler 1969," Dave Layman, is awarded his stunning bouquet of feathers.

Suspended from a cascade of color, Sunday morning celebrities overlook a funny paper world.

Yogi Bear is still a favorite comic strip character — according to Gail Lukehart and Kent Adams that is!

Kapers, The Seniors' Inspiration

Minnie and Mickey Mouse, better known as Jill Heschong and John Wand, go forward to receive their award for the best costumes at the dance.

This year's Vice-Versa featured such famous people as Mickey Mouse, Charlie Brown and Lucy, Dennis the Menace, and Lil' Abner. The theme was Kartoon Kapers; the dress was costume or date clothes. It was presented by the senior class.

A large mobile of several cartoon characters hung suspended from the center of the gym, and the brightly colored murals portrayed numerous other characters. The refreshment stand further added to the decor, as it was made to look like an ice cream parlor.

The "Ace of Spades" provided the music for all the costumed dancers from 8:30 to 11:30 that night. All were in accordance that this was a very successful dance, not to forget the fun and happiness it brought to those in attendance.

Junior class vice-president, Bob Davis, and his date groove to the good vibrations of the Ace of Spades.

Lighthearted Twirps Welcome Spring

Julie Rensch reigned over Twirp Week by virtue of her Happy New Year tiara.

For the students of Richwoods, Twirp Week, March 16-20, proved to be a week of fun, games, childhood days, grubbiness, and disorganization.

The week was officially launched with the Dating Game assembly on Monday.

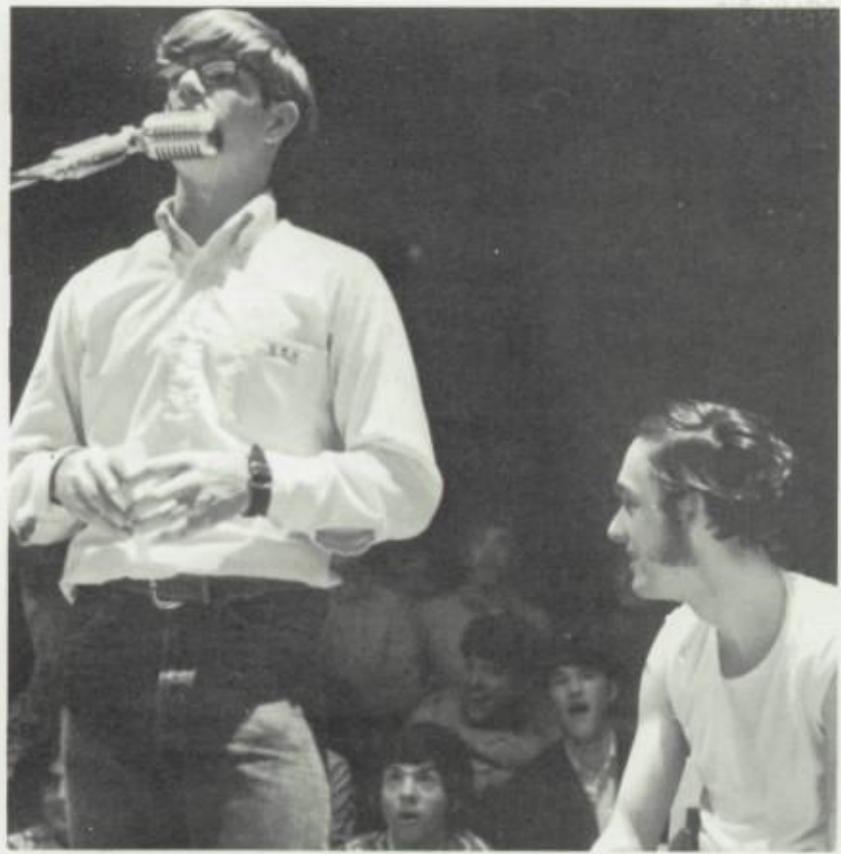

On Tuesday the students reverted back to the days of doll-babies, Cowboys and Indians, and lollipops. Plaids and stripes and checks and prints were in order on Wednesday-Clash Day. With the mixed-up outfits there was also a mixed-up schedule.

Thursday honored grubbiness, coming to school in T-shirts, jeans, and anything else one considered "real grubby."

RHS students were shown how the shows on TV should be done as the "Look Through Hollywood" assembly brought Twirp Week to a close.

Frolicking models sported these exclusive Richwoods originals on Clash Day.

"And Bill Noble is SOLD for $47!" calls out auctioneer Rick Edwards.

Slave Auction Highlights AFS Week

Ugly men, pretty legs, and paper chains are just a few of the many events that took place during AFS week. The week began with a panel presentation of the Mid-State Nine exchange students in an assembly. Money was obtained every day by ugly men contestants and on Tuesday, slaves were auctioned off to the highest bidder. Wednesday ended with a Sock Hop from 3:00 to 4:00, and messages were bought on Thursday. Another auction was held on Friday in the gym. The Student Council car wash was held on Saturday from 9:00 to 3:00, and the AFS dance climaxed the week on Saturday night.

The dance contest during AFS week provided entertainment for sock-hoppers.

Mid-State Nine AFS students aspired to bring their native countries closer to Richwoods.

Thank you for asking me to take it to this play. I really enjoyed it.

Dark of the Moon Asks The Question:

How Powerful Is Black Magic?

Dan Young's elusive ballad foreshadows the outcome of the tragic love story.

The spring play, "Dark of the Moon," was presented in the Richwoods auditorium on May 1 and 2. The play was directed by Mrs. Bettsey Barhorst, a speech instructor at RHS. It was her first attempt at directing a play at RHS and she scored an immediate success.

The leads in the play were captured by Michael Thompson and Paula McGlasson as John the Witchboy and Barbara Allen, respectively. The plot of the story deals with evil conjurers casting spells on John to turn him into a human and the sorcery that lurks high atop the Smoky Mountain Ridge of Buck Creek.

Other leads in the play were Mark Spink as the "strongest man in town," Marvin Hudgens. Preacher Haggler, Mark Tauscher, tries desperately to keep his congregation together despite the presence of the witch-boy in their town.

The mood was one of witchcraft and the eerie feeling was kept alive as Dan Young sang the ballads that furthered the plot of the play.

Student director was Judy Rosenberg.

"Nobody, but nobody, knocks Marvin Hudgens around."

Floyd Allen puts off chore time by "pickin' out a tune."

In spite of a threatening sky, a square dance is enjoyed in the valley.

"A little Mountain Dew never hurt anybody," laughs Preacher Haggler.

The Mood Was Romantic in Gay Paris

Queen candidate Karen Barber and her escort Brent Triebel.

Queen candidate Nancy Hoerr and her escort Tom Schwab.

Queen candidate Robin Loring and her escort Ken Kirkpatrick.

Queen candidate Laura Miller and her escort Tom Peeler.

Queen candidate Carol Solley and her escort Bob Hostiezer.

Miss Becky Owen beams radiantly as Doug Birdsall presents her the Queen's gift.

Paris! An evening in France with all the frills, but minus the many bills! And that is just what the Junior Prom on May 16 was, an "Evening in Paris." The queen of the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom was Miss Becky Owen, escorted by Mike Trent. The other Prom Queen candidates and their escorts were: Karen Barber and Brent Triebel, Carol Beard and Rick Edwards, Nancy Hoerr and Tom Schwab, Robin Loring and Ken Kirkpatrick, Laura Miller and Tom Peeler, and Carol Solley and Bob Hoftiezer. Providing music for the Paris holidaymakers was Bill Hardesty and the Holiday Brass.

Unlike other years when the Prom queen candidates were announced, a little bit was told about each girl, what they had achieved in their years at Richwoods, and what they were wearing for that night.

The color scheme for Prom decorations was pink and purple. Twisted overhead were streamers of purple and pink, and in the center of the floor was the "l'Arc de Triomphe." The backdrop for the queen's throne was the Eiffel Tower. One certainly was in Paris that night!

Taking advantage of Parisian reality, tourists relax during an enchanted evening.

Under the colorful skies of Paris, couples dance to the music of Bill Hardesty and the Holiday Brass.

Brian and Brenda - Build New Ideas For Student Council

This year's Student Council elections brought a definite change over previously used methods. Each presidential candidate chose his own running mate for the vice-presidency and together they planned a campaign.

The hardworking teams were Doug Birdsall and Doug Cheney; Brian Cohen and Brenda Schwatz; and Tom Cottingham and Abbie Bettinghaus. The slogans ranged from "Bird's the Word," to "Give a Damn," to "T.C.'S Righter."

The candidates delivered their speeches on Monday, April 13, and voting was held during the lunch hours. Since no candidate received the required number of votes, a run-off election took place on Tuesday. The final tally revealed that Brian and Brenda were elected.

Brenda Schwatz, 1970-71 Student Council Vice-President.

Brian Cohen, 1970-71 Student Council President.

By expressing their true feelings about student council, Brian and Brenda proved to RHS that they care.

Class president Chris Curfman and various other honored guests prepare to dine after the invocation.

The senior's final social event of the year took place on June 2 in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Pere Marquette. Here, couples dined and danced until 11:30.

Senior class president, Chris Curfman, offered a prayer before the dinner of roast beef which was served in an old-fashioned manner.

Guests of the class for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Korgie, senior class sponsors for over twelve years. Mr. Baietto, Mrs. Shepherdson, Mr. Daugherty, and Mrs. Campbell were all invited and attended the dinner. Along with these guests, the class officers, Chris Curfman, Doug Neal and Cheryl Simons, were seated at the head table with their dates. AFS student Tom Wetz was also an honored guest.

Table decorations for the dinner dance were centered around the class flower — the poppy, and the class colors of red, white, and blue.

Following dinner, "Six and the Single Girl" provided the music for everyone who attended.

Baptist Minister Encourages Leaders

The Reverend Donald Engram cautions the graduating class to make their own decisions for the seventies.

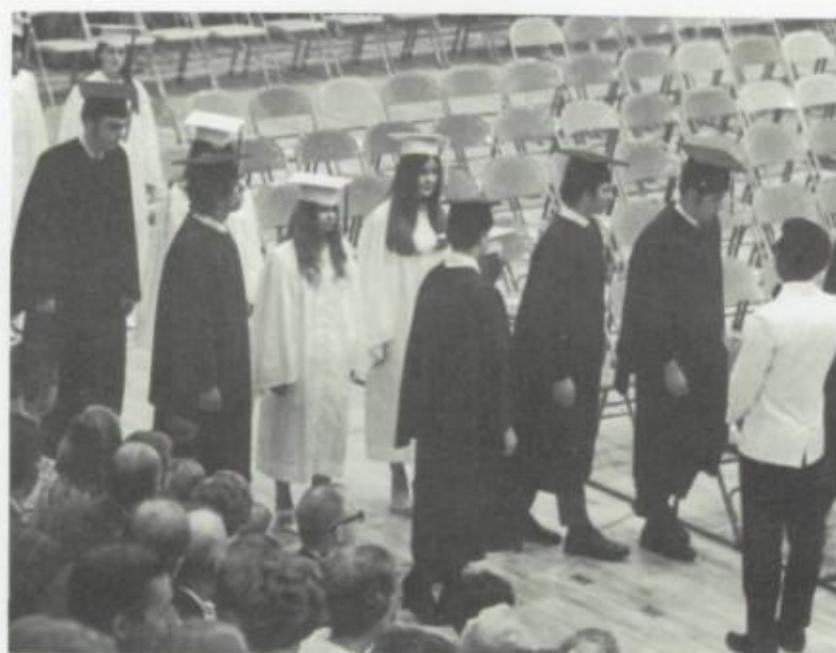

Members of the senior class wait in anxiety for their turn to march into the gym.

On June 3, 1970, a dream became reality for those seniors who attended Baccalaureate, the religious service. The service began with the traditional processional played by the Richwoods Concert Band.

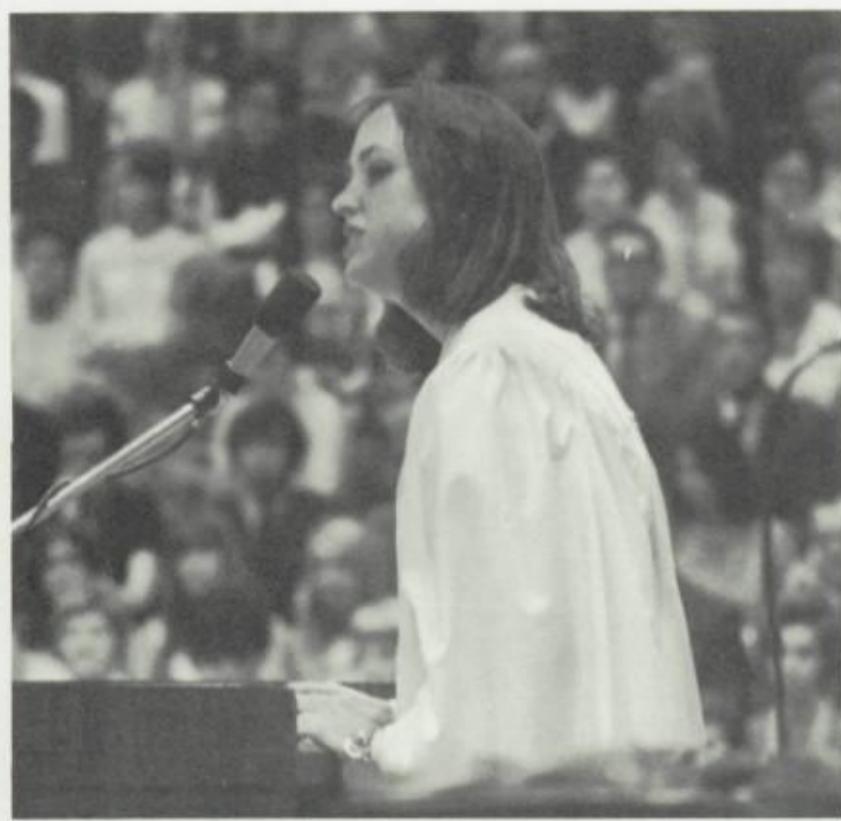

Doug Birdsall and Bob Davis, junior class president and vice-president, respectively, served as marshalls for the ceremony.

Judy Rosenberg opened the service with the invocation. Girls' Choir then sang a selection called "Good Folk on Earth," and A Cappella sang two numbers, "Speak To One Another" and "Blessed Be God."

The Reverend Don Engram of Pekin presented his challenge to the class which was followed by the benediction by William Noble.

As each parent in the audience gazes diligently for his son or daughter, the Class of '70 marches in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Speaker for the class, Nancy Thun urges her fellow students to realize what direction they are going in the future.

Commencement exercises were held for the Class of 1970 on June 4. The program began with the traditional procession of marching seniors. The members of the class, about 600, marched in to "Pomp and Circumstance."

The Reverend Robert Thornburg gave the invocation followed by an address by senior Nancy Thun.

Presentation of the class gift, a $600 check to the parents of Dale Vasline who had severe burns due to a motorcycle accident, was done by Chris Curfman.

Richard Saller then gave his address, and Principal Robert Baietto presented the graduating class to the audience and Dr. Leonard Costa who handed out the diplomas. An appropriate benediction by Reverend Thornburg ended the ceremony.

Class of 1970 Finally Makes It!

Mr. Baietto presents the senior class to the audience attending commencement exercises.

As seen above a sea of green and white mortar boards, Dr. Leonard Costa presents final recognition of four years at RHS to one of the 600 seniors.

ORGANIZATIONS

“... walk together, talk together . . .”

Debby Brandt, AFS student to Greece, and Tom Wetz, AFS student from Germany.

Dear Richwoods,

The simple existence of AFS and AFS students shows people all over the earth that because of its closeness through technical means the people of one nation have to change their attitudes to the people of other nations towards tolerance and understanding, for without these attitudes they cannot stand this closeness peacefully.

Understanding and tolerance are often easier through knowledge of each other; knowledge in a very wide meaning, including personal experience, familiarity, human contacts.

An AFS-er makes all kinds of contacts, close ones and others that are just enough to give him or others notice of something they were not familiar with. I made these contacts; I found a family, friends, all kinds of people to experience, to live with—and as the goal to tolerate, to understand, and to be tolerated and understood.

I especially want to thank the Altorfer family deeply for the home they gave me through their love, care and uncountable efforts for me. I found Richwoods developing toward a goal. Keep on making it a good place to go to—school life becomes so much more meaningful.

Thank you,
Tom Wetz

Dear Fellow RHS Students,

“Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the earth . . . then and only then shall be peace.”

So goes the song of AFS; so go the thoughts of every soul on earth, especially those who are fortunate enough to have seen the world through more than the one set of eyes given them.

My sisters Ellen and Anna, my mother Amelia, and my father Michael Assikis made up my family. By walking and talking together, laughing and crying together, we learned to love one another, ignoring the fact that we belonged to different corners of the world. It can be done. It wasn't hard and it didn't hurt a bit. But now I only hurt for one reason; it's summer and it doesn't seem right that I'm not at my home in Thessaloniki, Greece. I left more than my family; I left a way of life I had learned to accept as my own.

“Learn” and “Love” are the key words to the successful summer I spent in Greece, and I find that they work at home as well as six thousand five hundred miles away. KA H TYXH!

Debby Brandt
Summer '69

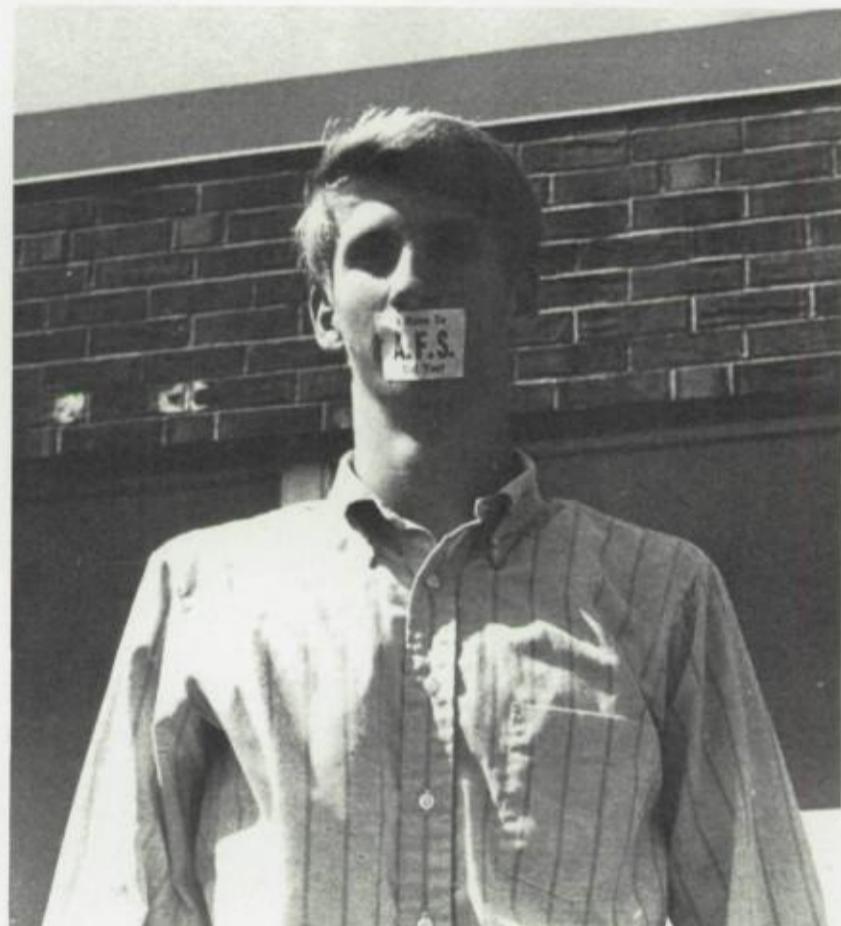

It's obvious that this Pretty Legs contestant is a real "winner."

The 1969-1970 foreign student at Richwoods was Tom Wetz from Karlsruhe, Germany. During his year in Peoria he resided at the H. D. Altorfer home. Richwoods' contribution to the program this year was Debby Brandt who spent her summer vacation in Greece. Both Tom and Debby gave assemblies showing slides of foreign lands and foreign people.

The annual AFS Week was featured with a Pretty Legs Contest between understandably unidentified male faculty members, and the traditional car wash, dance, and Ugly Man Contest were in appearance also.

Student Council Initiates Tutoring

The 1969-1970 Richwoods Student Council started off a successful year with homecoming activities. "Casino Royale" and many after-game dances were included. A new addition to this year's activities was a "Turkey Trot" dance, a vice-versa dance including the reigning "Mr. Goble." The annual Charity drives were again sponsored, including the Canned Food Drive and Bundle Days. The winter dance "Snowball" set a festive mood of Christmas.

This year, Student Council worked on becoming a more effective student government with the good of the student body in mind. Homeroom representatives along with other officers worked very efficiently because roll-call vote was initiated this year. A student tutoring program began to take effect and planning for a buddy system next year was started.

Another issue being discussed was eliminating P. E. and music as necessary honor roll requirements.

At the beginning of second semester were elections of representatives and a quite interesting assembly by a hypnotist, Dr. Ross. Following this was the senior vice-versa, "Kartoon Kapers." Twirp Week festivities included a "Dating Game" assembly, Kiddie Day, Clash Day, Grub Day, and a "Let's Make A Deal" assembly.

AFS Week also was a highlight this year. The week's activities included such things as the Ugly Man Contest, a Pretty Legs Contest, a car wash, and a dance. The year concluded with elections of the 70-71 president and vice-president and discussing "open" homerooms.

Knights reverted back to their childhood on Kiddie Day during Twirp Week.

This year's presidential elections resulted in a victory for the team of Brian Cohen and Brenda Schwartz.

Excalibur

With the aid and supervision of co-editors-in-chief Ellie Neuhoff and Sue Unes, the Excalibur staff tried its utmost to make its yearbook the best ever and an enjoyable one for all Knights. A memorable yearbook requires great cooperation, exacting work, and careful organization. The editors, around which the staff revolved, first spent their time in detailed planning for the sequence and content of the annual. After this initial stage, actual preparation of the page designs, called layouts, began. Along with these layouts much written material, or copy, explaining various things in the Excalibur had to be composed. When all layouts were copied, typed, proofread, and sent to the editors for final criticisms, the layouts were sent to the publisher, the American Yearbook Company. This was all brought to a climax when, on August 20 the Excalibur was distributed to the students of Richwoods. For the members of the staff it was indeed a gratifying reward to have been a part of the completed yearbook. Striving for excellence, much valuable time was accrued to it.

To promote citizenship and school spirit, to provide an outlet for student opinion, to teach techniques of journalistic writing and newspaper management, and to inform students of all phases of RHS life: all are the goals of the SHIELD. Through the leadership of Editor-in-chief Marcia Moore and Managing Editor Tom Schwab, a staff of some fifth-three strong produced an All-American rated newspaper. This year an entire issue was devoted to the subject of environmental pollution, and its evidences in the nation and Peoria itself. The humor of seniors Carol King and Doug Biederbeck was enlisted for a column which alternated its title from "The King and I" to "Leave It to Bieder." A new position was created on the SHIELD this year in the form of editorial advisor. It was filled by senior Tucker Szold. The last time the SHIELD was honored with the title of All-American Newspaper was in 1968 under the leadership of Cindy Carr.

Magazine Reflects Student Creativity

In its second year of existence, REFLECTIONS, the literary magazine of Richwoods, created its first edition during November. For a certain allotment of time preceding, Knights could submit their works to "Floyd," a congenial garbage can-like creature inhabiting the library. Later in the year a psychedelically designed locker in the four hundred hall was used for the same reason. The 1970 edition of REFLECTIONS sold over fourteen hundred copies at ten cents a piece. Under the supervision of English teacher Mr. Steven Dougherty, the REFLECTIONS staff didn't devote their time to produce the magazine expressly for entertainment. Their foremost intention was to produce a forum for those who wished to express themselves beyond the scope of the school newspaper. The cooperation and contributions of RHS students was invaluable to its production.

One of the editors of REFLECTIONS, Debbie Rosenberg, goes to a homeroom of prospective buyers.

A Cappella Presents Trial by Jury

A Cappella director, Mr. Roger Coventry, endeavors to induce a better sound in his choir.

The haunting strains of "Kyrie Eleison" opened a busy year for the 1969-1970 A Cappella Choir. Under the choral direction of Mr. Roger Coventry, A Capella made several appearances in addition to its traditional programs at the Robing Ceremony and the Christmas and spring concerts. In February, the choir traveled to Peoria High School for the annual Mid-State Nine Music Festival and to Bloomington High School for a choral workshop. A Cappella also performed at Bradley University in early March and later in the spring presented the Gilbert and Sullivan musical, "Trial by Jury." A Cappella experienced a great transformation when, as a result of a more select membership and the graduation of previous members, the choir was reduced from eighty-five students the preceding year to forty-four members this year. Another change was made when, instead of the traditional singing of the "Messiah" at the Christmas concert, A Capella sang Monteverdi's "Magnificent Primo." The choir concluded its season at Baccalaureate exercises in June.

Girls Choir Travels to Millikin

The 1969-70 Girls' Choir proved to be one of the most active and indeed probably the most widely traveled of past Girls' Choirs at Richwoods. In addition to the traditional concerts during the year, the choir was most distinctively honored to be chosen to perform at Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois. On February 21 the girls visited the campus and sang selections from "A Ceremony of Carols" along with other seasonal material. Millikin Choir director, Mr. Hofflin, gave various pointers to the choir after their performance as part of the workshop.

Performances at Heritage House and a local morning talk show, "The Ann Lane Show," constituted two of the principle settings for the Sophomore Choir's talents. Comprised of a mere twenty-five girls, this choir was represented by six officers who attended choir council meetings with envoys from other choirs. They were Debbie Shuman and Marilyn Johnson, representatives; Barb Haefli and Laurie Altorfer, secretaries; and Peggy Reid and Jan Weygandt, librarians.

Ensembles Relate Lyrical Impressions

Richwoods' choral ensembles, the Madrigals, the Choraliers, and the traditional Harmo-Knights made their formal debut at Timber Lake Country Club before the school administrators of Peoria in the fall. Each group then went its separate way to put in many long hours of practice and make a wide variety of exciting appearances throughout the school year.

The Madrigals, attired in wandering-minstrel fashion, included in their performances, appearances before the Peoria Board of Education in December and the Rotary Club in March. Led by Mr. Roger Coventry, the Madrigals sang everything from Bach to the Beatles.

Miss Patricia Parrott again undertook the direction of the Harmo-Knights and Choraliers who were both chosen from A Cappella and Girls' Choir members. The Harmo-Knights made a television appearance in late December singing a repertoire of Christmas songs. They also cut an album in Champaign, Illinois, that included a number of their favorite selections.

Another all-girl group, the Choraliers, sang at the winter concert, giving an excellent performance of "I'll Never Fall in Love Again."

Madrigals Gary Nicthing, Diane Rigley, and Nancy Nelson are taught the art of sight-reading by Mr. Coventry.

Connie Birdsall seems awestruck at the height of fellow Choralier, Dot O'Brien's notes.

Seventy-five people made up this year's Richwoods Concert Band. Through the year the band marched across the football field, the basketball court, and on the streets of Peoria, presenting entertainment at half-times and in the Homecoming Parade. Under the direction of Mr. Herbert Lee, the band also stirred up spirit at the pep assemblies and other events this year.

To perfect their sound, a daily practice was scheduled. During football and basketball seasons, an extra practice was held before school. As a result of this hard work the band presented several concerts for various organizations.

The Audio-Visual Aids Department, which is now called the Learning Resource Center, is headed by Mr. George Mathis. It is divided into two sections: the library and the A.V. room. The audio-visual equipment is used not only to enrich courses, but also to accelerate teaching methods. The "A.V. Men" are taken out of study hall to aid teachers and operate projectors, microphones, and cameras.

When one is in the library, aid can be obtained from the library assistants. Under the supervision of Mrs. Harriet Ball and Mr. Earl Robertson, these girls perform such duties as locating books, magazines, and microfilm, as well as, volunteering their services in maintaining the circulation desk, shelving returned books, and taking study hall attendance. Many librarians pursue their jobs after college.

Monitor Laurie Judd interrogates Sally Owen — "O.K. where's your pass?"

This year, the Richwoods hall and office monitors, advised by Mrs. Lucille Harvey, Mr. Ronald Kaufman, and Miss Judy Zimmerman, consist of approximately seventy-five students. They perform many step-saving tasks for the faculty such as checking attendance cards and delivering passes and messages. They devote one hour of their day to lending a helping hand in making RHS run more smoothly and are greatly depended upon. The monitors are a major link between the classroom teacher, the student, and the main office staff.

SECRETARIES. Row 1: L. Russell, C. Henry, L. Denton, S. Burnett, K. Kamperman, C. Murphy. Row 2: S. Phillips, J. Anderson, D. Hawks, E. Tookey, L. Dotta, R. Johnson. Row 3: C. Brinkman, M. Under the advise and assistance of Miss Shirley Horwedel, student secretaries contribute their study halls to help teachers. Individual secretaries work under department chairmen. Typing, filing, and answering telephones are just a few of their duties. Experience is their only benefit because they receive no credits or pay. Recommendations from business teachers are important, but qualifications are required.

Groups Further Scientific Knowledge

Again this year, the Richwoods Science Department was aided by the student lab assistants. Headed by Mr. Ken Powell, interested students volunteered their study halls to assist the science teachers and their classes. The lab assistants did a great variety of things such as helping students with labs, explaining material, maintaining the science laboratories, grading papers and an overall assistance to the department.

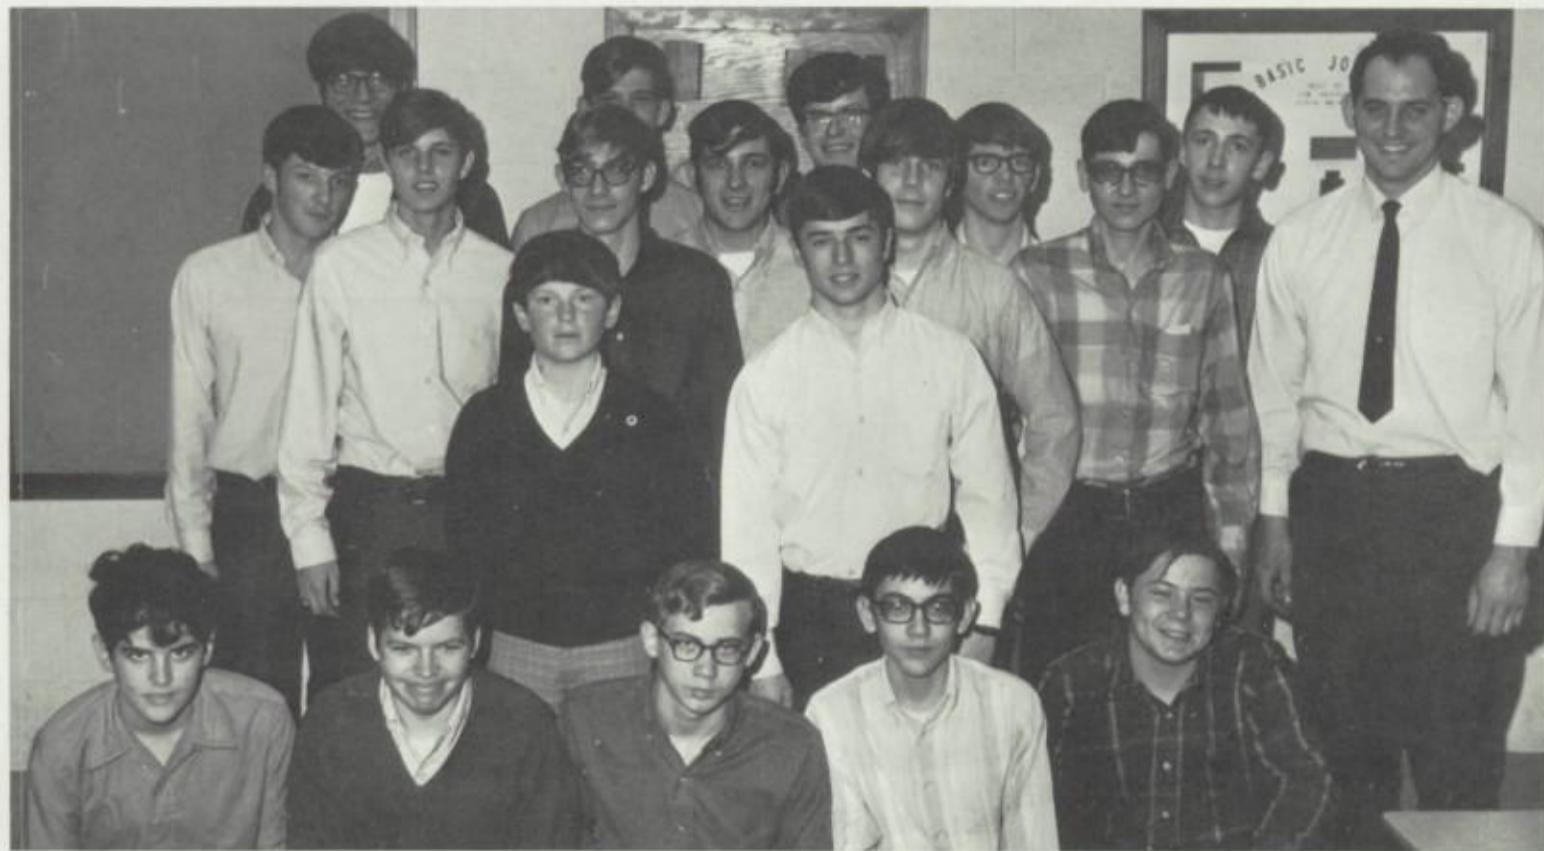

The Biology Club this year yielded to a group interested in psychic sciences. The RHS Society of the Psychic Sciences lasted only to the end of the first semester and was not available for a picture. Interested students held a number of sessions with guest speakers, experiments, and seminars. The sponsor for this group was Mr. Ron Hearn.

Members of the Richwoods' Industrial Arts Club were kept busy this year with three field trips, monthly meetings, and many special projects and activities.

Their first field trip took them on a tour of the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago, St. Louis was visited in March, and their final trip was taken in early April. This last trip included a survey of the AMCO operations.

Meeting every Wednesday, the Industrial Arts Club dabbled in the world of big business.

Dance Club, one of this year's newly created clubs, pirouetted through an eventful season with its advisor, Mr. Donald Coven. The members of this club visited various philanthropic and thespian organizations to realize dancing and dramatic skills. Late in the spring they performed a "concert in dance" attended by many patrons of the arts.

First on the agenda for Health Careers Club was the election of officers. The results were: Carolyn Hightower, President; Heidi Watts, Vice-President; Peggy Pounds, Secretary; Sharon Davis, Treasurer; and Debbie Gessel, Coordinator. Three field trips were taken, and guest speakers were invited to the meetings. They all spoke to the thirty-one members on careers in health.

The Feature Teachers Association, better known as FTA, is the oldest club in existence at R.H.S. Even though this club met only once a month, they had many activities, including the sale of mums for the Homecoming and a gift of a fifty dollar scholarship to a senior.

Whether one takes the pro or con of an issue, hard work and dedication is a must for good work in the field of debate. Hours of research and exchanging new ideas and information is just a part of being a good debater. The other part consists of enthusiasm and dedication. Our debaters carried those traits with them as they won first place in the Mid-State Nine and many high ranking titles in the other tournaments.

The debate club consists of five varsity debaters, seven sub-varsity and eight novice debaters. All work was under the direction of Mr. David Hamacher and Mr. Charles Rolinski.

Forensics Portray Facets of Speech

Having captured a third place trophy in state competition, Nancy Thun delivers her oratorical declamation.

Forensics or individual speech competition has been quite rewarding and enjoyable for many Richwoods students this year. It improves speaking techniques and skills along with instilling a school spirit and providing a chance for participants to meet other individuals interested in this area. They were under the close supervision of four Richwoods teachers, Mrs. Betsy Barhorst, Mrs. Sara Drew, Mr. David Hamacher, and Mr. Charles Rolinski.

Forensics includes a broad variety of speaking areas. They are after dinner speaking, extemporaneous, serious play reading, humorous play reading, monologue, original oration, oratorical declamation, radio speaking, prose and poetry.

The RHS speech team attended a great number of tournaments competing with students from ten to sixty schools. Richwoods also hosted a novice tournament. Placing first in district and sectional competition on the varsity level were Nancy Thun in oratorical declamation and Debbie Glatz in serious reading. Receiving second place in district competition was the contest play, The Romance of the Willow Pattern.

The 1969-1970 Spanish Club had many interesting meetings throughout the school year. Several guest speakers made appearances including Marguerita Vargas from Columbia who showed many items from her native land and talked on customs in Columbia. Mr. Patterson, a salesman from Caterpillar who had taken a business trip to Mexico came to speak, as well as a former practice teacher at Richwoods, Miss Lundholm, who had visited South America and exhibited numerous slides.

The thirty members of this year's Latin Club met on the third Thursday of each month. Their meetings were highlighted by special student-produced programs and games related to Roman history, Roman heroes, and Roman mythology. A Christmas party was also held this year, and took the form of a Roman banqueta. The Latin Club members dressed for the spirit of the occasion in Roman costumes.

The officers of this year's Latin Club were Marcia Nohitsch, president; Kathy Winters, vice-president; Tim Tocke, secretary; and Marty Smith, treasurer.

One of the many organizations at Richwoods was the French Club. This year the club was mainly under the guidance of Mrs. Kenna Owens and Mrs. Jacqueline Dooley. They met approximately once a month and learned about the language and customs of the people of France.

At Christmastime members learned carols, which they sang throughout the halls of RHS. One meeting featured a lady who talked to them about studying in France.

Being advised by the two Richwoods German teachers, Mr. Jay Plattner and Mrs. Alberta Mantz, German Club established itself along side of all the other language clubs at Richwoods. The goals of the club were to bring present and past German language students closer to the language, customs, and current events of Germany. This goal was attained through regular meetings plus several sessions where members enjoyed casual discussion with our German AFS student Thomas Wetzel.

Once a week the members of the Human Relations Club met to discuss with classmates and occasional guest speakers the problems that exist in our society today. Members looked at problems realistically and then devised solutions for it, or ways in which they, as members of the club, could help to alleviate it.

For many years the Richwoods Guard has been a service to the community. Under the direction of Mr. Rich Clopper and Mr. Joe Clement, the members of the Guard perform many useful duties. On Saturday mornings the Guard teaches grade school children the fundamentals of swimming and diving. For the more skilled swimmers, the Guard sponsors advanced swimming classes on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. These classes emphasize endurance and perfected racing strokes. In the spring of each year, Guard members also devote their time on Fridays after school to working with mentally and physically handicapped children. On these afternoons, the Guard tries to develop the children's confidence and coordination. In addition to this, Tuesdays and Thursdays enable the entire family to enjoy an evening of swimming.

The theme of the annual Guard Show held in the fall was "Those Fantastic Floating Funnies." The skits, directed and produced entirely by Guard members included take-offs of the comic strips "Blondie," "Peanuts," "Archie," and "Li'l Abner."

A Senior Physical Education Leader is a valuable aid to a P.E. teacher by taking the attendance, supervising the locker room, and setting up equipment. He also gives assistance by leading the calisthenics and demonstrating certain skills.

To become Senior Leaders, sophomore girls and boys must fill out an application and must be recommended by their physical education teachers. During their junior year they are then members of the Junior P.E. Leaders class instructed by Miss Mary Taylor or Mr. Ty Franklin. Here they develop leadership, responsibility, and physical skills. Finally certain ones are chosen to become the next year's Senior Physical Education Leaders.

Through Football-Basketball Seasons

Left, two, three, four. These sounds may be heard every Tuesday and Thursday after school as the Richwoods Royalettes have their practices. Thirty-seven talented girls drill under the direction of Mrs. Carol Schulz.

Three weeks is the minimum amount of time it takes to polish up a routine. These weeks are filled with the practice of rhythmic ability, coordination, poise, and the over-all memorization of routines. Class representatives and Mrs. Schulz donate much of their time to write up these routines. The class representative for the sophomore class is Kathy Meyer. The representatives from the junior class are Rachel Meier and Patti Coyman. Robin Loring and Carol Solley are the senior class representatives. Carol Solley was also named the "Royalette of the Year."

Try-outs are held in the spring. These try-outs are based upon good posture, marching ability, and the ability to work well with others as well as pointing toes and smiling. Also a true desire to become a Royalette is required of these girls. Throughout the year, our Royalettes have done a tremendous job of entertaining at football and basketball half-times.

Mrs. Carol Schulz and her class representatives junior Rachel Meier, sophomore Kathy Meyers, junior Patti Coyman, seniors Robin Loring, Carol Solley composed all of the routines the Royalettes performed.

Boys found this Royalette routine most enjoyable.

Nine members met each week during the year to mark another season for Chess Club. The club has been in existence for several years, but this year's adviser was Mr. Leonard Crooks. Although he was new to RHS this year he kept the meetings going and sponsored tournaments within the club itself.

The Radio Club is open to any RHS student who is interested in electronics or ham radio. These students meet twice a month in order to further their interests in these areas. There are approximately ten members in the club this year, and about four of them have their ham radio licenses.

Cross Countrymen Run Into First

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY. ROW 1: R. Clubb, D. Collins, K. Adams. ROW 2: Coach Wayne Hammerton, B. Patterson, J. Storts, S. Thompson, B. Unruh, K. Hiserote, P. Stuckwisch.

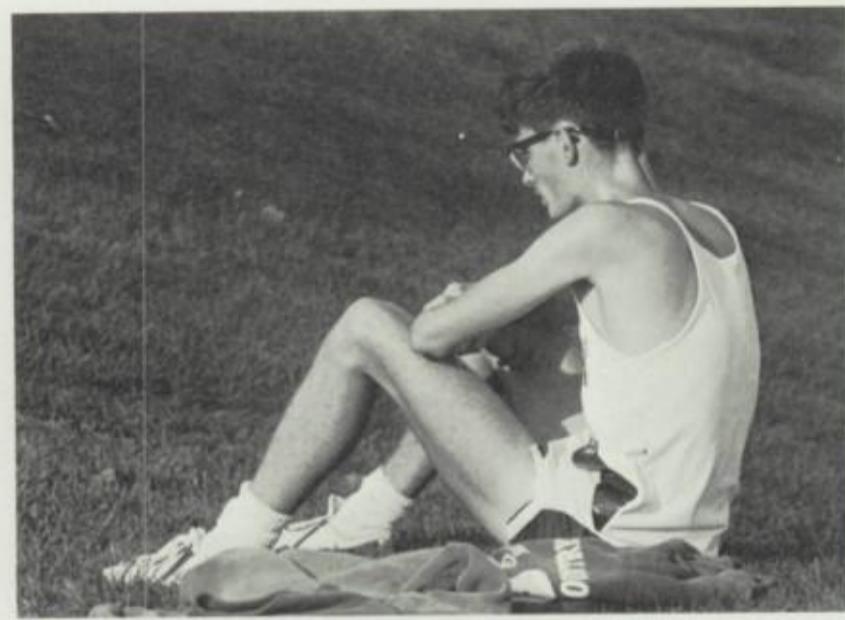

Steve Thompson, in his first CC year, finished a consistent second to Hiserote.

The Richwoods Cross Country team had a successful season this year, finishing first in the Mid-State Nine Conference, first in the Illini Conference, first in the Rich Invitational, second in the Peoria Central Invitational, second in the Sectional, and eleventh in the State Meet. The team's chances for a state title were lost due to illness among several members on the squad.

Valuable senior Kim Hiserote led the Richwoods harriers to an 11-0 records. In dual meets he was undefeated, and ran his way to setting a new Richwoods course record of 13:10 over 2.65 miles. Another outstanding runner was senior Jeff Storts, who finished second in the Sectional, and was named the most improved runner for the year.

Other lettermen this year included senior Dave Collins, juniors Steve Thompson, Brent Unruh, Phil Stuckwisch, Rick Clubb, and sophomores Bill Patterson, and Kent Adams.

Because of the successful year on the Varsity level, many Junior-Varsity runners who might have lettered otherwise, did not. The J-V team finished the season with an 8-1 record. This record entitled them to first in both the Illini and the Mid State Nine Conferences.

Kim Hiserote rests after the Central meet. He had an outstanding yet frustrating year, for he was plagued by the flu.

Phil Stuckwisch and Brent Unruh, coming in third and fourth, keep up the RHS tradition of placing near the top in cross country meets.

On this runback, Brian Harvey broke more tackles than there were Woodruff Warriers before he finally scored -- a few from Woodruff missed twice.

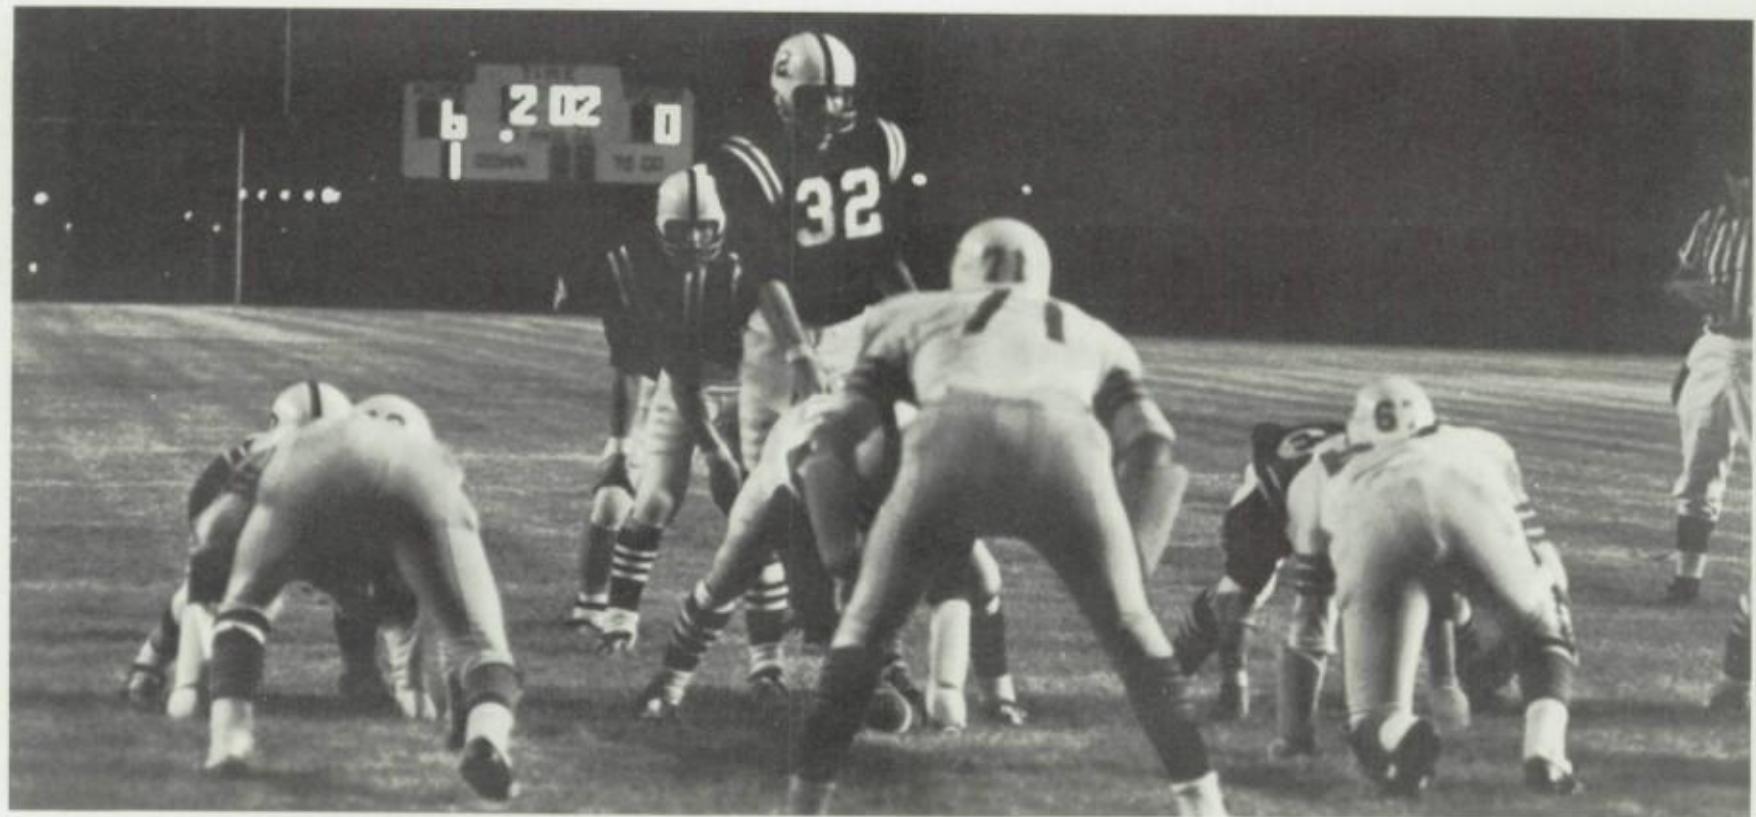

D.R. Phillips, the Conference leading passer with 1070 yards, gets off another against Spalding.

Central's Gary Shelton played a fabulous game against Richwoods, but even he was finally stopped.

After the first touchdown against Pekin, Phillips gets down for the extra point attempt.

Mad Monkeys Frolic Through Year

Tom Peeler didn't have to punt often against Woodruff, but when he did, it was in perfect form.

Ward Eastman dove, but the ball hit the dirt first.

At Central, Coach Siebel advises Ken Kirkpatrick on how a football should be properly hiked.

The thrill of prancing first through the victory shield at this game belonged to Jerry Metz.

After one of the longer Woodruff gains, Doug Neal finally brings down the runner.

Although he was one of the smallest men in the conference, Todd Huson made a fine monster back.

To Record Season

Needless to say, 1969 was a fantastic year for football at Richwoods High School. The Knights were undefeated, Mid-State Nine Champs, and rated first in Illinois (by the Illinois Prep Sports Special), all for the first time. Two Champaign-Urbana newspapers, which also conducted polls rated the Knights highly, although not first.

Richwoods, as the game scores indicate, demolished all opponents save one, Peoria Central. The Lions led for most of the game, but the Mad Monkeys pulled out the only nail-biter of the season in the last quarter. Throughout the season both the defense and offense were outstanding. Conference records were set by the Knights in both most points scored (300 in eight games, for 37.5 average) and least points allowed (32, for an average of 4 per game).

All-State selections were Bob Hoftiezer at fullback and Eric Young at defensive tackle. Receiving mention were End-Defensive End Ward Eastman, Tackle Bill Elkins, Guard Tom Peeler, and Quarterback D.R. Phillips.

M-S 9 All-Conference members were Eastman, Elkins, Hoftiezer, Peeler, Phillips, Guard Tom Thornburg, Halfback Dan Young, and Eric Young. Special Mentions went to Center Tom LaBarr and End Bob Mosiman. Wingback Bill Piskorski received Honorable Mention.

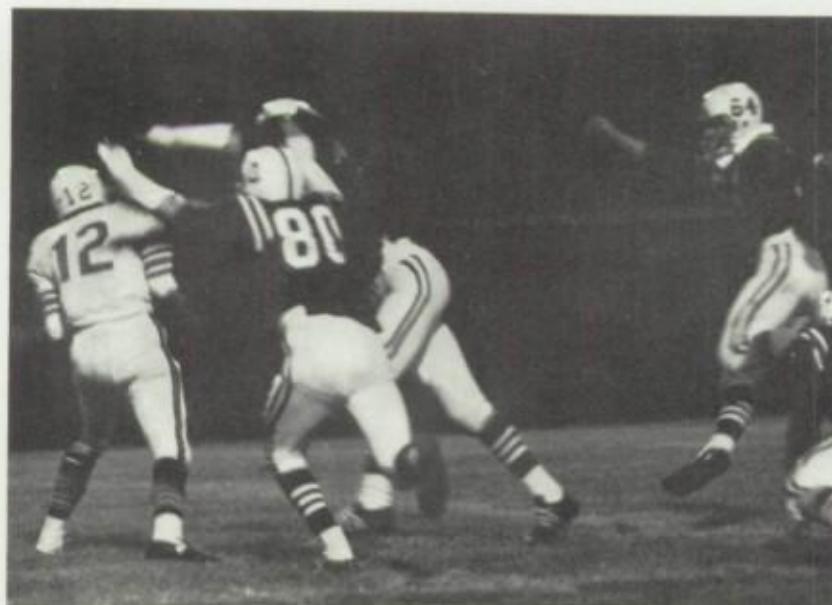

Illini All-Conference players were Eastman, Elkins, Specialist-at-safety Brian Harvey, Hoftiezer, Mosiman, Specialist-at-defensive end Doug Neal, Peeler, Phillips, Thornburg, Dan Young, and Eric Young. Linebacker Jerry Metz was awarded Special Mention.

Dan Young (23) crawls along that long lonesome grassway for an extra yard.

The referee scurries out of the way as Ward Eastman makes another flying leap for the catch.

All too often -- for the opposing quarterbacks at least-- the Richwoods defense got through.

At East Peoria, the Raiders scored the first touchdown, and Peoria Area Coach-of-the-year, Tom Peeler remained rather sour most of the game.

Reserves Rob Strand and Doug Birdsall took over in this game after RHS had a substantial lead.

Varsity Cagers Close Season at 11-13

John Taylor watches the defense develop as he drives downcourt.

The 1969-70 season was another frustrating one for the Richwoods basketball team. At times the team played fantastic ball, but they could not keep up the momentum and finished with a disappointing 11-13 record. The Knights, although fifth in the Mid-State Nine Conference and third in the Illini, did act as a spoiler, knocking off some of the big teams and making the conference races a little closer.

The captains of this year's team were seniors John Taylor and Chris Curfman. Taylor (.369 shooting percentage) was a favorite with the crowds for his amazing jumping and dribbling. Curfman, the tallest man on the squad, hit on 46.2% of his shots, but towards the end of the season was plagued by a back ailment. Voted the most improved player by his teammates was junior guard Chris Voegele who had perhaps the greatest reach of any guard in the conference.

Taylor made the Mid-State Nine All-Conference squad. Curfman and Doug Rittler, who was often the game high scorer, received mention.

Although the Illini All-Conference team was very hard to get on, due to Galesburg and Pekin, two Knights made it -- Taylor and Rittler.

Fabulous Fish Place Sixth in State

VARSITY SWIMMING TEAM. Row 1: R. Roesler, J. Noetzel, G. Leach, P. Hopwood, M. Davis, B. Triebel, B. Anderson. Row 2: Joe Clement, Rich Clopper, D. Dickison, R. Wood, W. Eastman, S. Krieger, R. Andersen, J.

The 400 free relay team of Roger Wood, Doug Long, Tom Pula, and Dave Long placed fifth in State.

In their first year at their positions, head coach Rich Clopper and assistant Joe Clement led Richwoods to a 16-2 dual meet record. Losing only to Illinois State Champion Hinsdale and to tough Rock Island, the Knights were undefeated in Mid-State Nine action, winning the conference title easily.

An impressive win in the district meet built up hopes for a high finish in the state meet; this was not to be, however. Three disqualifications in key events ruined chances for a higher finish as the Richwoods swimmers ended up sixth. Brilliant performances were turned in by sophomore Gib Leach and by senior Roger Wood. Leach won the 100 year breast-stroke in an All-American time and Wood placed 4th in the 50 freestyle and 5th in the 100 free, as well as being anchor man on the 5th place 400 free relay team.

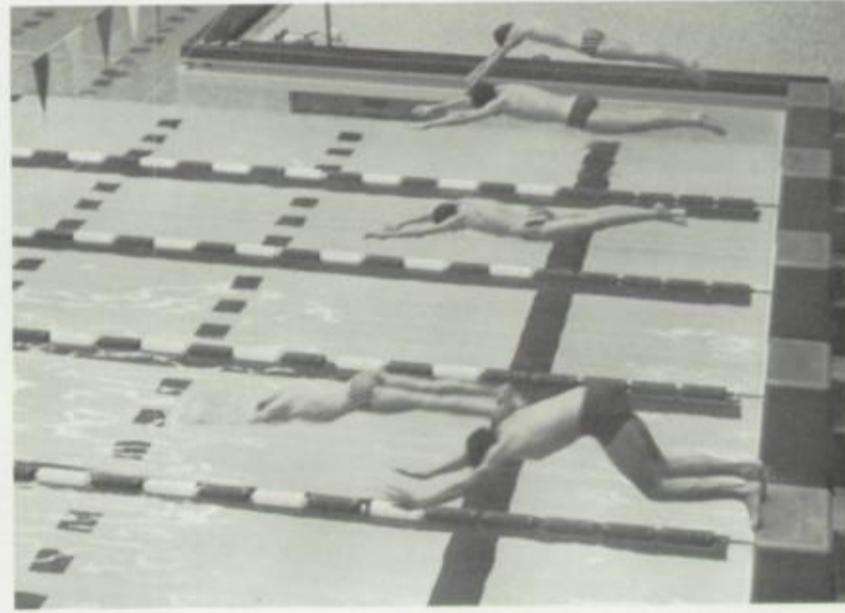

Other swimmers who added important points to the Richwoods total were Doug Long (400 free relay), Dave Long (200 free and 400 free relay), Tom Pula (200 free and free relay), and Mark Modjeska (400 yard free).

Over the season, Ric Andersen was the best diver, but it was Mitch Staley who qualified for the State meet.

Roger Wood and Gib Leach were voted most valuable swimmers by their teammates. Shannon Wood was named most improved sophomore, and John Houser was named most improved freshman.

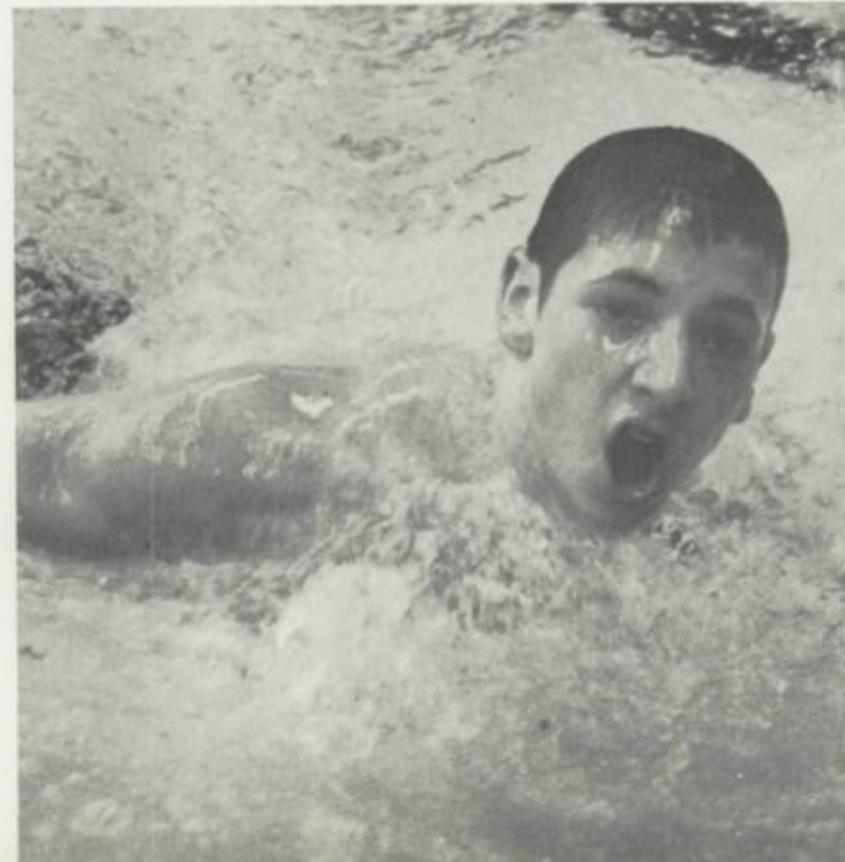

Ric Andersen comes in backwards as the judge looks on.

No matter how hard he tried, the swimmer in lane one (not from Richwoods!) couldn't seem to get moving!

Junior Mark Modjeska improved tremendously in the 400 free and ended up 12th in the State.

The freshman swimmers, as in past years, did not have many chances to prove how good they were. They practiced throughout the year just to keep in shape and attended only one meet--the Hinsdale Central Invitational Swim Meet for freshmen. Here, the freshmen fish finished seventh, leaving room for improvement, but still eager to follow in the footsteps of the Varsity swimmers.

Senior Jerry Metz (137) does a switch reversal in the District Meet. Metz was a co-captain and veteran outstanding wrestler.

The wrestling season was much more successful than the dual meet record of 8-8-1 suggests. For the first time since 1966 the Knights won a trophy, finishing third at the Normal U-High Invitational. But perhaps the most spectacular achievement of all was Jeff Simons' sixth place in the State Meet, the first Richwoods wrestler to place since 1965.

The three captains were seniors Jerry Metz (28-7, first in Illini and Mid-State Nine), Mark Pierce (29-7-2, first Knight to win Granite City Invitational), and Tom Thornburg (24-10-2, first in Illini and second in M-S 9). Juniors Bill Anderson (28-6, first in Illini and M-S 9), and Simons (first in Illini and M-S-9) were also exceptional.

Joe Gargiulo coached for his first year, bringing the freshman-sophomore team to a 9-1 record and second place in both conferences. They were fourth in the M-S 9 meet, however.

Led by the outstanding and record breaking pitching of senior Randy Stueve, the varsity baseball team enjoyed its best season ever. It finished second in the Mid-State Nine with a record of 11-5 and had the longest winning streak ever — ten games. The team also took sole posession of the Illini Conference Title for the first time in RHS history.

Randy Stueve, the number one pitcher, broke a 1960 record of 81 strikeouts in one season by compiling a total of 82. Another achievement was Richwoods' domination of the Illini All-Conference Team, placing five on this squad. These five were seniors Randy Stueve, Bill Piskorski, and Doug Ziegler, and sophomores John Dawson and Rick Bengston.

On the Mid-State Nine All-Conference scene, only two Richwoods varsity players were chosen to be on that team. These two outstanding players were Randy Stueve and Rick Bengston.

Mike James, fleet-footed outfielder, tried to steal third against Manual, but failed.

Sophs Waver in Clutch

The Sophomore Baseball Team had a fair year, winning 8 and losing 7. The wins were complete routs, by margins of as many as nine and ten runs. When it came to the close games, however, the sophs choked, losing to Manual 1-0 and to Central 14-13. Pitchers Blair Miller and Donahue were most valuable.

Freshmen Win a Few - Lose a Few

Coach Siebel throws in some body-English, but his player was still out, as can be seen from the position of the glove and the foot.

Mr. Charles Siebel once again coached the freshman baseball team, concentrating more on development of talent and giving his young players a complete background in the game, rather than in playing the best over and over. As in past years, the team's record was not fantastic, but they did split the season.

Cindermen Undefeated in All but State

After being upset in the 100, the 220 saw Mike Trent completely smoke Gary Shelton of Central with a City record time of 22.0.

With a squad of fourteen seniors, fourteen juniors, and five sophomores, the varsity track team ended their excellent season with 17 wins and no losses. The Knights had an impressive record, obtaining five different titles—first in the Illini, first in the Peoria City Meet, first in the District, first in the Mid-State Nine, and first in the Woodruff Relays. With these achievements, the Knights were the first since Woodruff in 1951-52 to win all their meets excluding State.

Mike Trent who ran the 100 yard dash in a record-breaking 9.7, was chosen as the captain, and Kim Hiserote was named co-captain of the squad. The most improved cindermen were senior Bob Feinholz, junior Rick Clubb, sophomore Craig Sluetz, and freshman Joe Sexton.

In the close finish of a 220 preliminary, Shelton beat Bob Feinholz.

Frosh-Sophs

The 1970 Frosh-Soph Track squad had a season which varied little in style from that of the varsity team. They finished with a very admirable undefeated season and showed good depth and strength in all their events.

The young Knights followed in the varsities foot-steps placing first in the Illini Conference by scoring 88 points in that meet. However, they finished second in the Mid-State Nine Conference being edged out by the fine Frosh-Soph Track team from Manual.

With the frosh-soph supplement to next year's varsity team, coaches are confident that the Knights winning tradition will be upheld.

Taking over as Richwoods' number one hurdler after Ward Eastman's injury, senior Dave Blake won both City Meet races, and in record time.

Steve Higgs won this 440 heat, with Dave Schmidt third.

TOP SIX TENNIS PLAYERS: Coach George Johnston, Steve Cohen, Ray Bach, Corky King, Steve Spain, Skip Salzenstein, Al Geppinger.

Knights Capture Second in M-S 9

Steve Cohen was the top-seeded Richwoods tennis player and district winner.

Last year five of the six starting tennis players on the Richwoods team were seniors. Richwoods was second in the Mid-State Nine Conference, finishing behind Peoria Central, who built up a string of consecutive victories as long as your arm with a team consisting of only one senior. Consequently, pre-season prospects were not too good for the Knights. They surprised everyone though.

The Richwoods top six were seniors Steve Cohen and Steve Spain, juniors Ray Bach and Corky King, sophomore Al Geppinger, and freshman Skip Salzenstein.

There were various doubles teams, with no pair being together as much as, for example, Jim Sloto and Ken Cohen of last year's team. Two pairs which came close, however, were Ray Bach and Corky King and the sophomore team of Tom Triebel and Steve Foster, which has been especially promising.

Cohen, the top-seeded player, won the district singles competition. At the time of this writing, the state meet had not yet occurred, so it is impossible to say how well he did there.

King up to this point had lost only one match, and that to mighty Central.

Salzenstein, while only a freshman, cracked the top six, evoking memories of his older brother, a former Richwoods star.

This year, for the first time, Richwoods girls' teams participated in athletic competition against girls' teams representing other schools. The idea had been about for quite a while, but no one did anything about it until last fall, when P.E. teacher Miss Mary Ellen Taylor organized a tennis team. Volleyball and badminton followed, and there may even be girls' slugging home runs on the softball diamond before long.

The tennis team played two matches, beating East Peoria and losing to Pekin. Kay Hazen and the doubles team of Sue Ward and Kathy Plummer were undefeated.

The volleyball team placed third at a four-team tournament at East Peoria in which East Peoria won, Washington was second, and Pekin fourth.

Perhaps soon there will have to be a boys' cheerleading team to spur the girls on!

Rich Carroll, who finished fourth in the District Meet, eyes his put, hoping for the par.

On the golf course, the Knights had another good season. With only two returning lettermen — senior Rich Carroll and junior Bruce Anderson — the golfers had more success than at first expected, finishing with a final record of 15-6. This record gave them the third spot in the Illini and fourth place in the Mid-State Nine.

The highlight of the season for the RHS golfers was the District Meet. The golfers came along to qualifying for the State Meet, but were edged out by Pekin. Bruce Anderson, however, tied for medalist in the District which did qualify him for the State Golf Meet.

The 1969-70 Varsity Cheerleaders were, like the football team, number one, at least according to judges at the University of Illinois and Pontiac.

In July, 1969, the varsity team attended a clinic at the U. of I. At the end of the week's work, the RHS team was judged best of the over forty teams there and was awarded Grand Prize. This standard of excellence resulted in Richwoods being selected to host a clinic in April at which cheerleaders from both Richwoods and the U. of I. clinic taught.

Over the Christmas vacation at the Pontiac basketball tournament, the Richwoods girls, for the first time, were judged the best cheerleaders of the sixteen teams at the tournament.

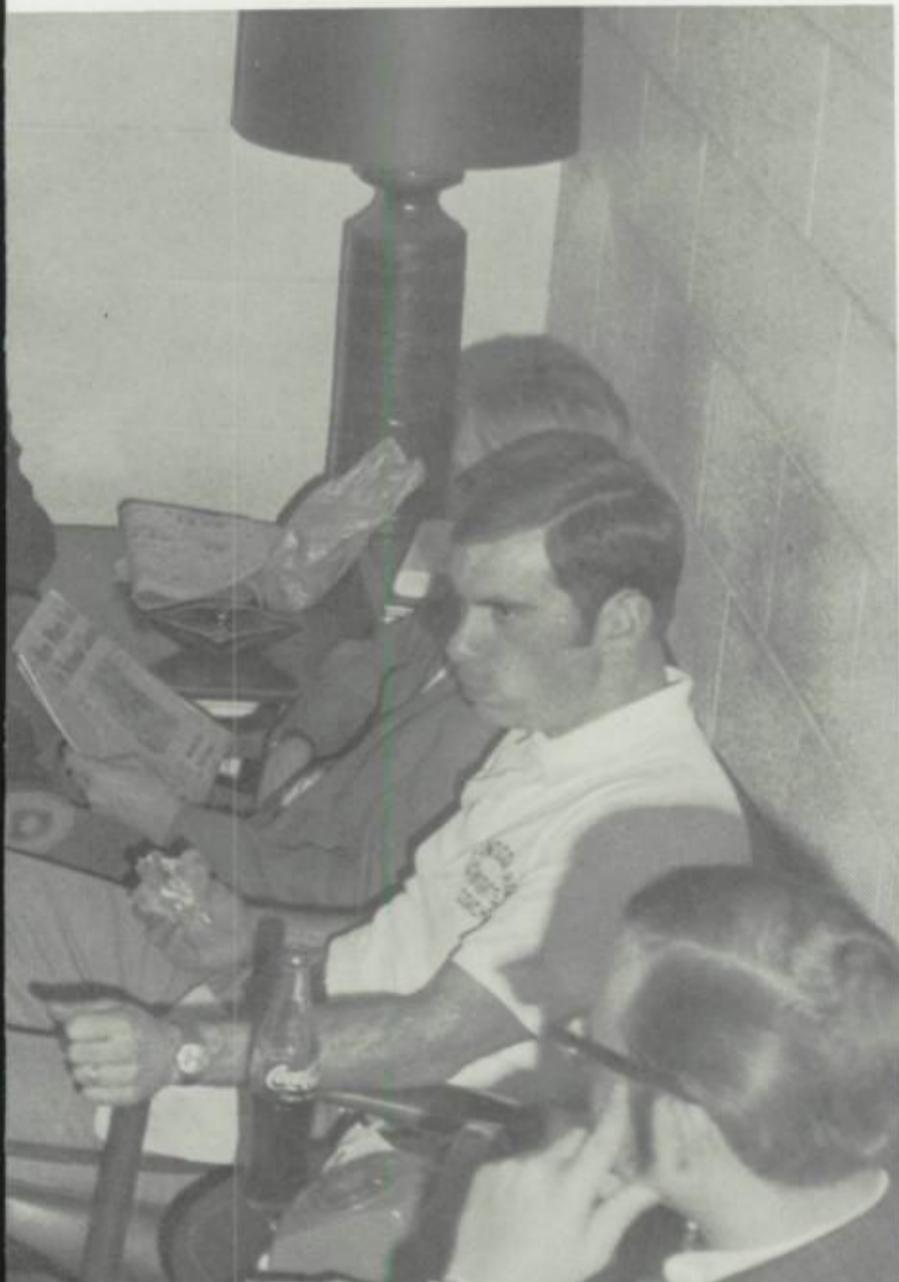

The varsity girls lead an enthusiastic cheer as the Knights defeat Central.

At the Limestone game, Debbie Brown looks angelic, but the more down-to-earth cheerers just applaud the Knights.

ACADEMIC-FACULTY

Newly appointed principal Robert E. Baietto originated the "positive" movement at Richwoods.

This year at Richwoods has been totally different than any other year. Why? Because new, progressive administrators and faculty have initiated a confident, "positive" attitude. Mr. Robert Baietto and Mrs. Rachel Shepherdson, both having taken on the increased responsibilities of principal and assistant principal, have led the way in this movement.

The "positive" movement has put many new responsibilities and freedoms on each and every student. Two new programs oriented this year were the open study hall system which gives the prerogative of quiet study or a free hour in the cafeteria, and the other being the adoption of a very liberal dress code. Since this new administrative attitude, the spirit and enthusiasm at Richwoods High School has soared high and we all hope it will keep on soaring.

During a pep assembly, Tucker Szold presented our "Good Guy", Mr. Baietto, a petition, signed by the entire student body, backing his "positive policies."

Unfortunately Mrs. Shepherdson did not successfully complete her drivers training course.

Mrs. Rachel Shepherdson competently assumed the position of administrative assistant at Richwoods.

Guidance Director

This year, the Guidance Department at Richwoods worked along with Mr. Baietto to help further the "positive attitude." Headed by Mrs. June Combs, the counselors, along with their guidance, urged students to accept new responsibilities.

For a troubled student, his counselor's office meant an open door, an eager listener, and useful advice. It was a place to take one's problems in an attempt to reduce and sometimes solve them.

However, the counselors did more than just advise. Besides issuing passes, admits, and registering students, they also gave college entrance tests, and completed and sent all the necessary transcripts and college applications for the college-bound seniors.

The all-student casts for the plays were directed by faculty members Mrs. Sara Drew and Mrs. Bettsey Barhorst, plus student directors. These productions upheld the RHS tradition of excellent acting before capacity audiences.

Extracurricular Speech and Debate teams also added to the honor found at Richwoods, bringing in first place trophies to add to the others collected in past years and spread Richwoods' fame far beyond the school's walls.

Under the direction of Mr. Larry Jenkins, the Richwoods English Department again strove for a better program of literature and rhetoric. English classes divided the year between the study of proper English grammar and courses in literature. Sophomores studied a variety of authors, while juniors concentrated on American literature and seniors on English literature. A certain amount of creative writing was necessary in each course, and juniors and seniors struggled during the second semester with required term papers.

Required of all freshmen was Speech or Debate, where all learned the basics of public speaking. A more advanced class, Speech Theory and Practice, was open to interested juniors and seniors. Here, in-depth studies were made to better prepare these students for future speeches.

Journalism students this year in addition to basic instruction in journalistic writing and newspaper and management, took various field trips and had guest speakers to supplement their textbook information.

"That was French?" exclaims Mrs. Hatton after listening to the class jokes.

Mr. Jay Plattner seems to enjoy keeping up on the latest German news.

"Stop, don't interrupt while my friend and I are talking!" protests Mr. Gordon.

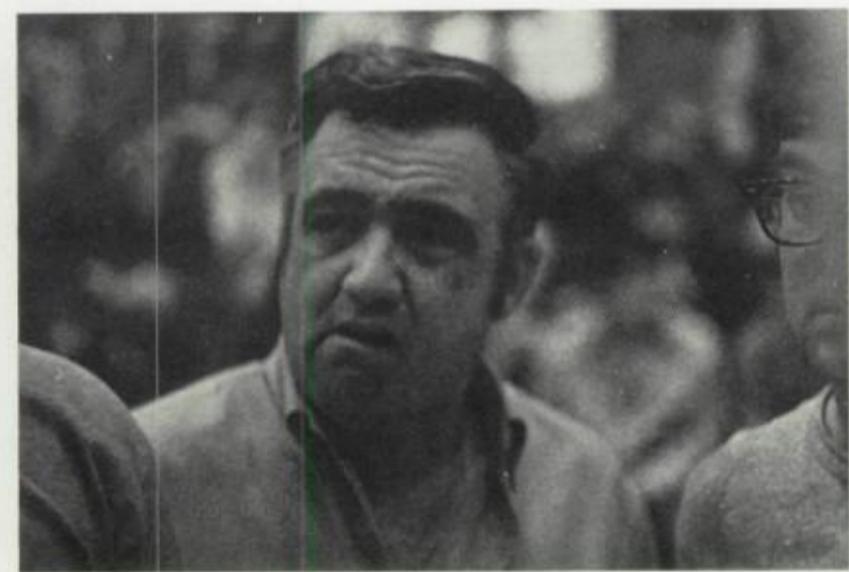

It looks like Reed Roessler needs a "helping hand" from Mrs. Owens.

Languages are the key to understanding and communication between people. The Richwoods Language Department plays a vital part in stimulating this important educational purpose.

Opportunities for language study are available to students interested in Spanish, French, German, and Latin. Students may participate four years in the language of their choice. Special fifth year studies are a new addition of the French department with emphasis on individualized independent study in literature.

The audio-visual approach is the teaching method for first and second year students. Teachers attempt to develop basic reading, writing, and speaking skills by creating interest and confidence through the use of the Language Laboratory, drills, and games. Third and fourth year students concentrate upon technical grammar, advanced speaking, literature, and culture.

Valuable to Knowledge

From a bird's eye view of Mrs. Close's Sociology Class, we see that they're getting a perspective on our world of today.

The variety of subjective courses in the Social Studies Department this year is as broad and wide-spread as in previous years. Courses provide and prepare students for the future in lines of Sociology, International Relations, and Economics. These courses introduce the problems of society and give a certain amount of reason and logic in their solving.

Our nation's past history is also stressed in the required course, U.S. History. Another course offered, Illinois History, is an involvement of past aspects and incidents relating to the state of Illinois.

Along with these profitable and enriching courses, American Government proves to show good response through its widening and enlightening study of present and past politics in the U.S. The Social Studies Department faculty has continued to bring back the old and prepare for the new by offering a voluntary course in Black Studies after school.

Math Challenges with Facts and Figures

The Mathematics Department this year continued to grow and prosper with its highly skilled teachers and new instruction media. The courses were basically the same as in previous years with the exception of the course titles being changed from AP to Enriched.

Introduction to the Computer course was a new challenge for interested students. This is offered to seniors and was a non-credit course held during homeroom. Slide Rule class was again offered for avid students wanting to further their ability in this area.

The Math Department aims to offer all levels of math, the purpose being to give adequate and proper training for the advancement of "facts and figures" in our world today.

Science in our society governs almost every aspect of our lives. The RHS Science Department has placed this strong emphasis upon all courses offered this year. Appreciation of what science is, a basic understanding of pollution and ecology, and some of the technological developments affecting our survival are areas that each course attempts to explore in some depth.

A special science seminar for seniors was conducted in order to allow students to research and discuss the social implications and aspects of scientific technology in greater detail.

Science courses such as Biology, Chemistry, and Physics were offered on more advanced levels for students wishing to prepare for careers in science.

Artistic expression and individual creativity within a framework was the primary direction of the Richwoods Art Department this year. Encouraging students' abilities within set standards and guidelines aided in the development of responsibility, awareness, and imagination.

Each course offered a general program consisting of design, composition, drawing, painting, sculpture, ceramics, lettering, commercial art, print making, and textile designs. Additional studies were available for the advanced pupil.

An eager sewing class watch Mrs. Richardson demonstrate her technique.

Home Economics prepare girls for future life. The classes now offered are General Home Ec., Foods, Clothing, Home Nursing, and Family Living. General Home Ec. gives girls a little of everything while in Foods class they learn the proper techniques in cooking. Clothing students become seamstresses, sewing up blouses, skirts, and dresses. The correct way to take care of invalids is taught in Home Nursing and good shopping and budget practices are explained in Family Living. Through open houses and style shows, the public can see the girls' accomplishments.

Attributing to the many business courses at Richwoods this year, is the new temporary classroom located outside the 100 hall. In all, there are two rooms in this building. It will be replaced in the future by additional rooms added on to the school.

Consumer Education or Economics are now required to either Juniors or Seniors and must be taken in order to graduate. Business careers strive to give an outlook for those seeking the business world as a career. Office Occupations is one of the opportunities in business advancement courses offered to all. The participants attend school for half a day, completing their credits, while the rest of the day is spent at good paying jobs in the community. No matter which facet of life one intends to enter, business in some form is involved. R.H.S. enlists its services in helping students gain both experience and knowledge through its wide variety of business courses.

A new addition to the P.E. department, self defense, might come in handy to these girls.

The Richwoods physical education program works toward a goal of improving physical well-being through organized physical activity. For both boys and girls this means innumerable sets of calisthenics. Girls participated in modern dance, softball, volley ball, basketball, square dancing, swimming, and gymnastics. The boys put up an equally strenous effort, as they lift weights, run track, swim and play hand ball. Health is included in both girls and boys classes. Spring and fall draws the classes outdoors for various sports such as track or softball. Films and written exams on the various games are also a part of the program. Under the guidance of capable teachers, students waste very little time in their all-out effort to improve their fitness.

The Enriching World of Music

This year, aspiring RHS musicians were offered courses in Music Theory and History and could play in the concert and varsity bands. The Richwoods orchestra, a special string class, encouraged students interested in classical music.

Vocalists had many opportunities to experience choral work. A Cappella Choir, Madrigals, Harmo-Knights, Choraliars, Girls' Choir, and ensembles were available for student participation.

Among the achievements in choral groups was the honor Girls' Choir had of being part of a demonstration at Millikin University. A Cappella sang at Bradley University as part of the National Association of Choral Directors, and the Harmo-Knights made a recording.

The Music Department, in attempting to develop well-rounded individuals, has given students a background and knowledge of music appreciation.

Stimulate Learning

Mr. Mathis seems to be up against pretty tough defense from Brent Triebel.

The Audio-Visual Department, under Mr. George Mathis, assisted teachers in one of the most vital and useful methods of instruction through new films, projection equipment, and video-tape.

The library, even more than past years, encouraged study and research. Students under the new study hall program frequented the library where a new selection of books, magazines, pamphlets, college catalogs, and other reference guides were available. Mr. Earl Robertson was again the head librarian.

Driver Education, under the direction of Mr. John Brown, taught the principles of roadsmanship and prepared students for safe driving.

Workers Keep

Castle Shining

Working staffs play important roles in the operation of each school day. Cafeteria workers enlist in long, busy hours preparing lunches. Much work involved with this job is overlooked; the workers spend considerable time preparing meals and cleaning and making ready the utensils.

Janitors maintain the condition of the building itself. Jobs include such things as taking care of the floors, lockers, and restrooms, along with setting up props for assemblies. These men and their services are more than appreciated by all at RHS.

Office secretaries contribute to the proven efficiency in the office. Their work involves handling files, taking phone messages, assisting students, and generally maintaining order.

The people who fill all of these jobs must be versatile as well as efficient.

Milt Roberts, our maintenance man, is the lonely figure—seldom seen, never heard from, but always there.

Worthy Seniors Are Acknowledged

Robin Loring and Dave Zentgraf received the D.A.R. and S.A.R. for having qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

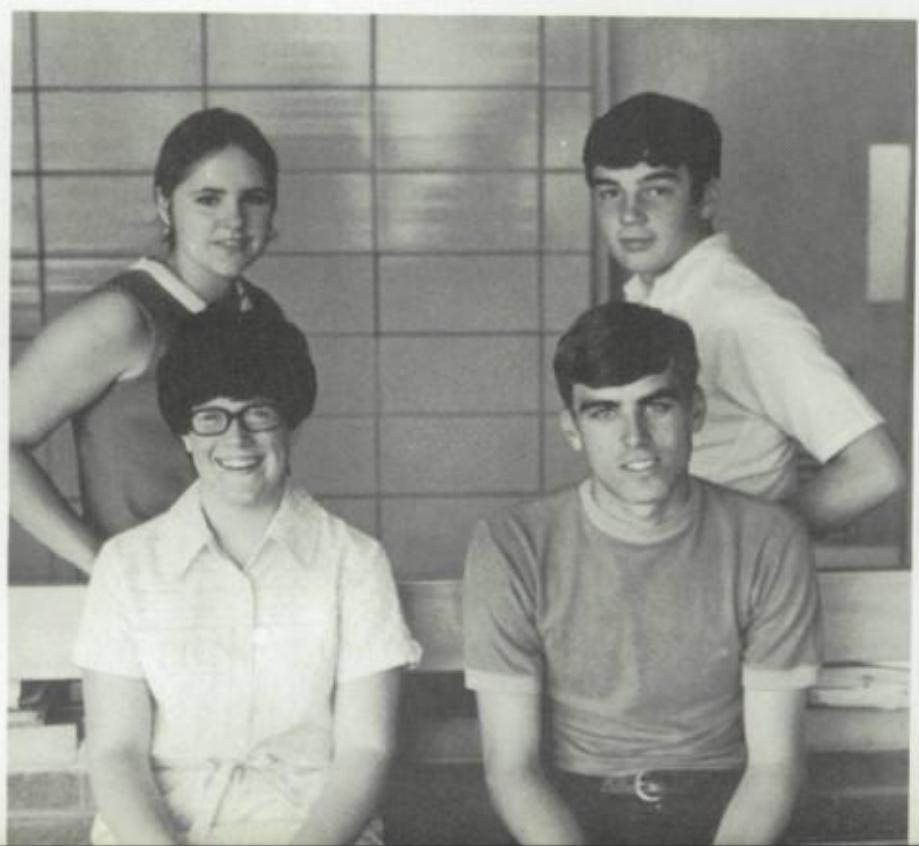

For displaying leadership, scholarship, character, responsibility, and honor, Kathy Adams and Tom Schwab were given the John Hall Award.

Chosen by the Top 8 per cent as outstanding students and receiving an exclusive Sterling Merit Award were Ralie Deffenbaugh and Nancy Thun.

Take Time To Remember 1970

An End and A Beginning
Remember this past year.
For frosh—An anxious Beginning
But for seniors—A sad, yet long-awaited end.

Remember football—Let's Go
10-0

The time has come to put the finishing touches on this year's Excalibur. And as our work draws to a close, nearly a year after it was begun, we take this time to reflect upon our rewarding experience. This book meant long, hard hours for those involved, but as Tom Schwab's words of wisdom go: "When the going get's tough, the tough get going." It is our sincere desire that each person at Richwoods finds a part of himself in this book.

We would like to thank our editors and their staffs who devoted their time to making this 256 page book a reality: Kathy Adams, Ralie Deffenbaugh, Nancy Hoerr, Laurie Judd, Diana Kelly, Becky Owen, Kathy Ziegele, Eileen Brekke, Gail Masterson, and Diane Rigley. Our photographers, Gary Benner, Gary Herberger, and Fred Weinberg, are most certainly included in this list.

A special thanks most certainly goes to our deserving friends, Julie Alberti, Tammy Martiny, and Sarah Robinson, who pitched in when help was desperately needed. We also extend our appreciation to Mr. Roger Foote of Creative Photography who devoted countless hours to developing and printing many of our pictures and to Mr. Joe Gardner, the American Yearbook Company Advisor, and Mr. Ed Utley who guided us through this hectic year.

Our parents also deserve a heart-felt thanks for being so patient during those long deadline nights and offering moral support when times looked bad.

To everyone else who devoted their extra time to the making of the 1970 Excalibur, we say thanks . . . and to next year's staff — GOOD LUCK!!

To my brother
stupid brother
Remember the borrowed
5 bucks you know you will pay it back just in case you kill me when you are driving
my hamster and my guppies. Have fun in your loving spotter, (laugh laugh)
